

McKay Creek School

Opened in 1927 to serve a rural community about nine miles south of Walsh

The school was moved many times by putting it on skids and dragging it to different locations